Unitarian House of Ottawa

Unitarian House (UHO) is seeking applications for four board governor (director) positions. The specific skill sets are:

1. Financial literacy.
2. Property management, including capital and maintenance.
3. Fund raising.
4. Elder care.

Unitarian House is a vibrant community for seniors, offering security, freedom, and opportunities for personal fulfillment and comfort in a beautiful setting overlooking the Ottawa River Parkway in the nation's capital.

Known for its friendly atmosphere, the House creates opportunities for residents to share interests, make new friends and participate in the wealth of activities taking place throughout the year.

The House is a unique mix of Retirement & Independent living in a welcoming and supportive community of residents, staff and volunteers.

New governors will be selected primarily based on skill set, with additional attention paid to passion and commitment to UHO values, connection to the community and board expertise.

How to Apply
